

100th Anniversary of the Militia Immaculatæ

St. Maximilian Maria Kolbe (1894–1941)
the founder of the Militia Immaculatæ

Rule of life of St. Maximilian

1. I must become a saint. I must become the greatest saint.
2. Let there be the greatest glory of Our Lord through salvation and sanctification of myself and all of the living in present times, and future — through the Immaculata.
3. Exclude mortal sin and venial sin (with full consent of will) from your life. Be at peace with your past. Be fervent and thereby make a reward of the time lost.
4. You will not omit: a compensation for any evil done (simply destroy the evil) and restrain from any good I can produce at any instant and in any possible way.
5. Obedience will be your rule =
Will of God through the Immaculata.
6. Do what you do — do not pay attention to anything else that comes to you, either good or bad.
7. Match a peaceful pace of your actions and mark your deeds with love and charity.
8. Preserve order, and order will preserve you.
9. Prepare your groundwork, then operate, finish everything.
10. Remember constantly that you are owned by the Immaculata.
11. I can do all things through Him, who strengthens me in Immaculata (Philippians 4,13).
12. Spirituality: watch yourself but give yourself to all others.
