

Establishment of M.I. 2 – Mission for Russia

• The Director of the Militia Immaculatae, Fr. Karl Stehlin, established M.I. 2 – Mission for Russia (a second degree of the Militia Immaculatae), bringing together Knights to pray for the consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, according to the requests of Our Lady at Fatima and Tuy.

Every day these Knights offer a prayer for the consecration of Russia:

‘Oh Immaculata, I ask you that, in union with all the bishops of the world, the Holy Father will consecrate Russia to your Immaculate Heart’

• The goal of M.I. 2 – Mission for Russia is to provide supernatural and natural help for the works being undertaken for the fulfilment of the request of Our Lady of Fatima to consecrate Russia to her Immaculate Heart.

If you want to join M.I. 2 – Mission for Russia, please write your intention of joining (full name, country of residence, e-mail address, and a promise to pray every day for the intention of the consecration of Russia to the Immaculate Heart of Mary), to:

“I believe that her banner will be hoisted up even over the Kremlin; that she will be truly the Queen of every heart and that in every heart she will install Divine Love, the love of the Heart of Jesus. Then the goal of the M.I. will be achieved.”

St. Maximilian Kolbe in 1931

The Consecration of Russia

to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Our Lady about the Consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart

- On the 13th of July 1917, Our Lady of Fatima asked for the consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart: “I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart, and the Communion of Reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heeded, Russia will be converted”.

- In Tuy (on the 13th of June 1929) Our Lady told Sr. Lucia: “The moment has come when God asks the Holy Father to consecrate Russia in union with all the bishops of the world to my Immaculate Heart, promising to save it by this means.”

- In her memoirs Sr. Lucia wrote: “Later on, by means of an interior communication, Our Lord said to me: ‘They did not want to heed My request! Like the King of France they will repent and do it, but it will be late. Russia will have already spread its errors throughout the world, provoking wars and persecutions of the Church: the Holy Father will have much to suffer.’”

- Later in 1930, Sr. Lucia wrote further on the meaning of the apparition and Our Lord's requests: “The good Lord promises to end the persecution in Russia, if the Holy Father will himself make a solemn act of reparation and consecration of Russia to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary, as well as order all the bishops of the Catholic world to do the same. The Holy Father must then promise that upon the ending of this persecution he will approve and recommend the practice of the reparatory devotion already described.”

- On the 29th of August 1931, Sr. Lucia said: “As I was asking God for the conversion of Russia, Spain and Portugal, it seemed to me that His Divine Majesty said to me: ‘You console Me very much by asking Me for the conversion of those poor nations. Ask it also of My Mother frequently, saying: Sweet Heart of Mary, be the salvation of Russia, Spain, Portugal, Europe and the whole world. At other times say: By your pure and Immaculate Conception, O Mary, obtain for Me the conversion of Russia, Spain, Portugal, Europe and the entire world. Make it known to My ministers that if they follow the example of the King of France in delaying the execution of My request, they will follow him into misfortune. It will never be too late to have recourse to Jesus and Mary.’”

The Refusal of the Consecration of Russia

On the 13th of June 1929, in Tuy, Our Lady gave 4 conditions for the consecration of Russia. She requires the Pope:

1. to unite “with all the bishops of the world”
2. to make the consecration
3. of Russia
4. to the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

On the 13th of May 1930, Sister Lucia explains further the will of Heaven and added two conditions:

5. to make “a solemn act of reparation and consecration of Russia to the Sacred Hearts of Jesus and Mary”
6. “to promise that upon the ending of this persecution [the persecution of the Church by those following the errors of Russia] he will approve and recommend the practice of the reparatory devotion already described.”

From the time that Sr. Lucia made the Second Secret known in 1942, with its request for the consecration of Russia, various Popes have performed consecrations approximating to the one requested by Our Lady, while still failing to follow her precise wishes.

Two facts confirm this conclusion: twenty-five years after the last consecration, the conversion of Russia promised by the Holy Virgin has still not happened; and Sister Lucia, against all opposition, affirmed up to 1989 that the consecrations made until then did not correspond exactly to Our Lady's requests.
